- 10:10-10:15 Introduction by the moderators, Anna-Karin Jatfors, Director, ad interim, Strategy, Planning, Resources and Effectiveness Division, and Sebastian Rottmair, Change Management Advisor, UN-Women on behalf of the agencies
- 10:15-10:30 Joint brief presentation on the Strategic Plans, 2022-2025, Pernille Ironside, Deputy Director, Division of Data, Analytics, Planning and Monitoring, UNICEF on behalf of the agencies
- 10:30-11:30 Discussion (organized per question, approximately 20 min per question)
Guiding Questions to the Executive Boards
- 1) Which are the major issues, development disruptors, and opportunities that will impact the success of the UN system's work in the coming years?
  - 2) The COVID-19 pandemic has revealed vulnerabilities and exacerbated inequalities in many areas (inter alia health, governance, gender, etc.). Responding effectively goes beyond the agencies and requires a system-wide approach. How do you see the agencies working with the rest of the UN system to achieve joint programmatic results, particularly in areas of close collaboration?
  - 3) What would be the key enablers for strategic partnerships and what would success look like in the next Strategic Plans 2022-2025?
- 11:30-11:45 Response from the agencies
- 11:45-11:55 Short presentation on the next steps and timeline, by Jacqueline Mahon, Director, a.i. Policy and Strategy Division, UNFPA on behalf of the agencies
- 11:55-12:00 Closing remarks by the President of UN-Women Executive Board on behalf of the three Executive Boards, H.E. Jukka Salovaara, PR Mission of Finland to the United Nations
