UN-SWAP 2.0 PERFORMANCE BY INDICATOR (2021-2022)

PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS IN 2022

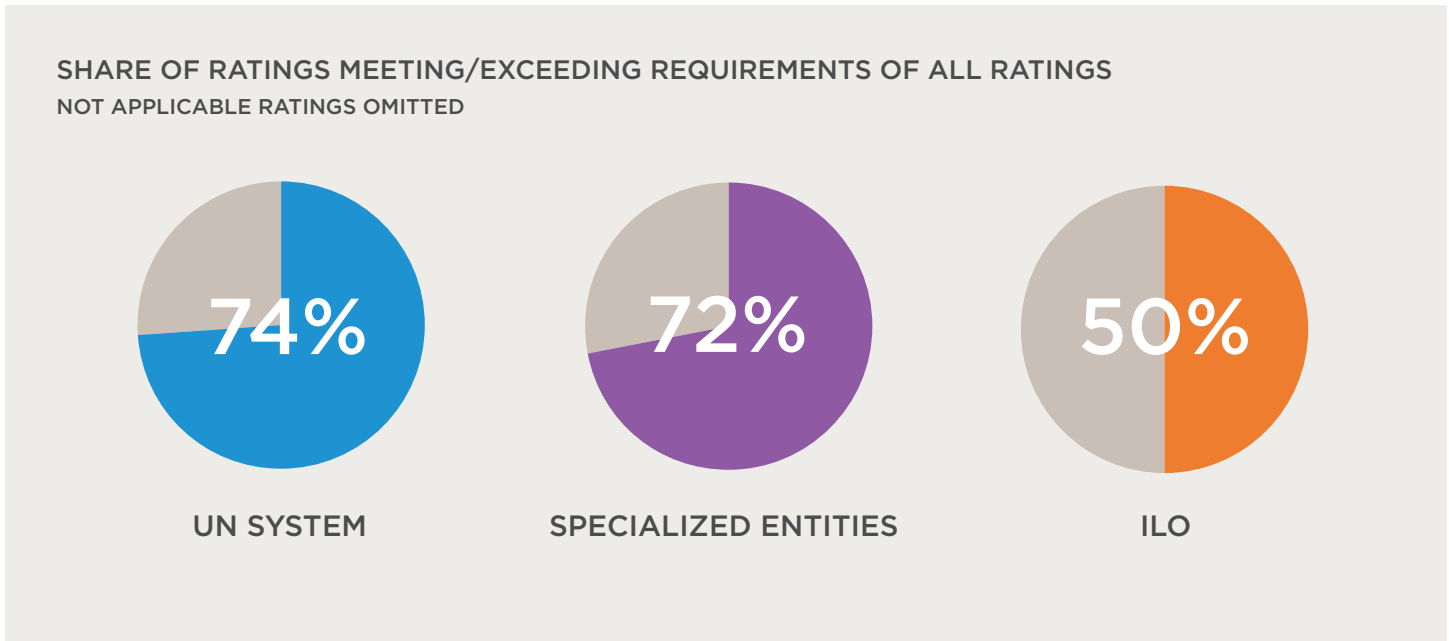

Most significant gains

- In 2022, ILO exceeded requirements for four indicators and met them for another four.
- Significantly, ILO newly exceeded the requirements for the Strategic planning gender-related SDG results, Audit, and Policy performance indicators.
- Also of note, ILO met the requirements for the Evaluation indicator in 2022.

Areas for improvement

- UN Women encourages ILO to focus on the eight indicators marked as approaching requirements including Leadership, Financial resource tracking, and Financial resource allocation, which declined in progress since 2021.

COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS FOR ILO

COMPARISON WITH SPECIALIZED ENTITIES AND THE OVERALL UN SYSTEM

In 2022, ILO met and exceeded requirements for less indicators than the average results for Specialized entities and for the UN System as a whole.

ILO, COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS OF RATINGS BY YEAR

In 2022, ILO showed a slight decline in performance by meeting or exceeding the requirements for one fewer indicator than the previous year and marking one indicator not applicable.
