UN-SWAP 2.0 PERFORMANCE BY INDICATOR (2021-2022)

PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS IN 2022

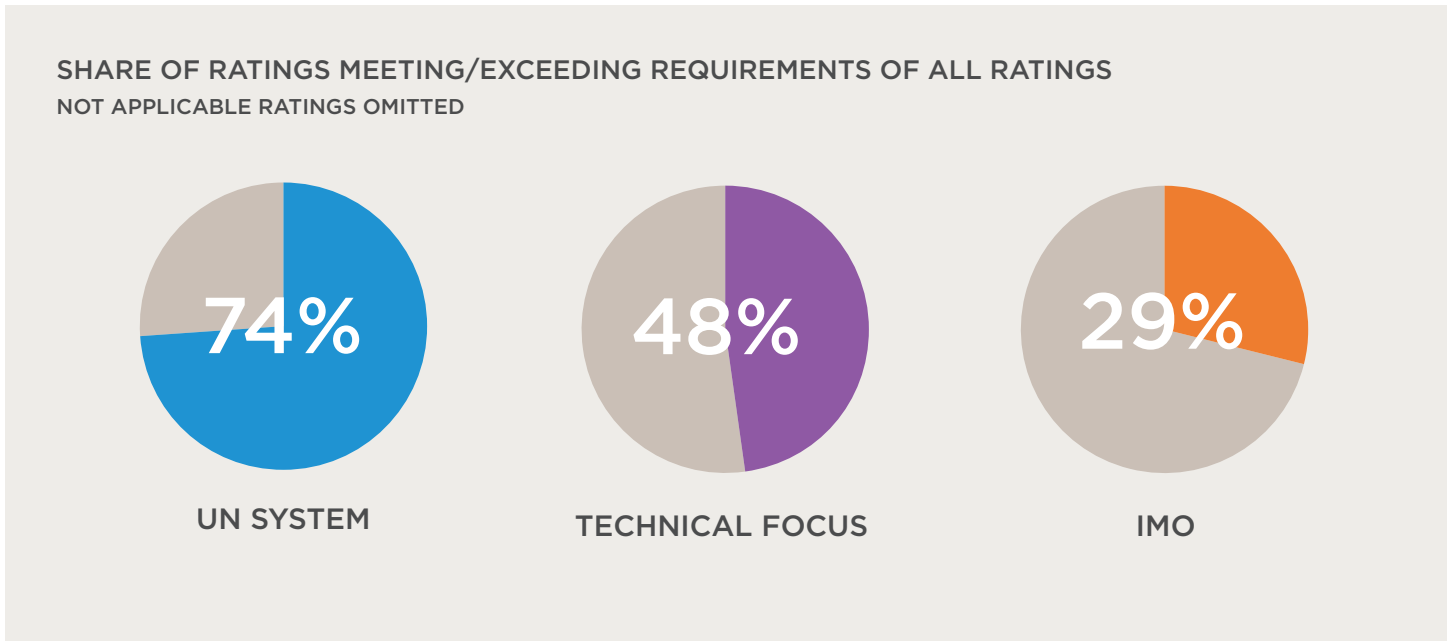

Most significant gains

- In 2022, IMO exceeded the requirements for one indicator and met requirements for another four indicators.
- Significantly, IMO newly exceeded the requirements for the Programmatic Gender-related SDG Results and met the requirements for both the Evaluation and Knowledge and Communication indicators.

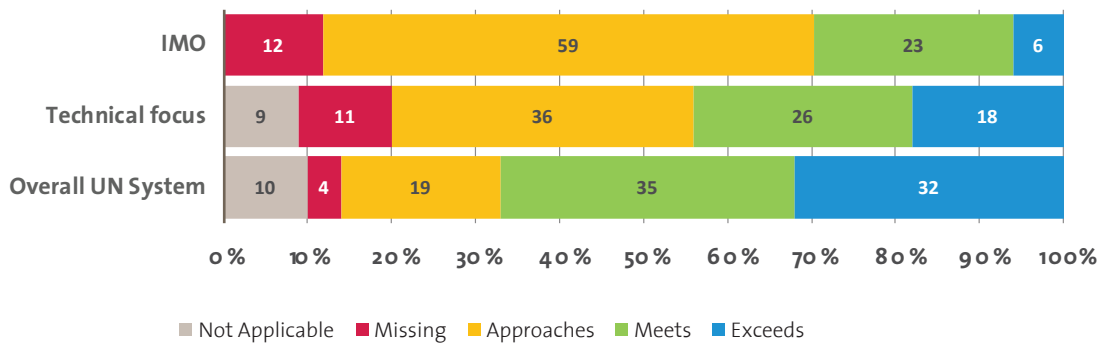

Areas for improvement

- UN Women encourages increased focus on the two indicators rated as missing requirements: Reporting on Gender-Related Results and Capacity assessment.
- Renewed effort is needed to recapture gains lost in the area of Policy, as well as to progress toward meeting requirements of indicators that have approached requirements for consecutive years.

COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS FOR IMO

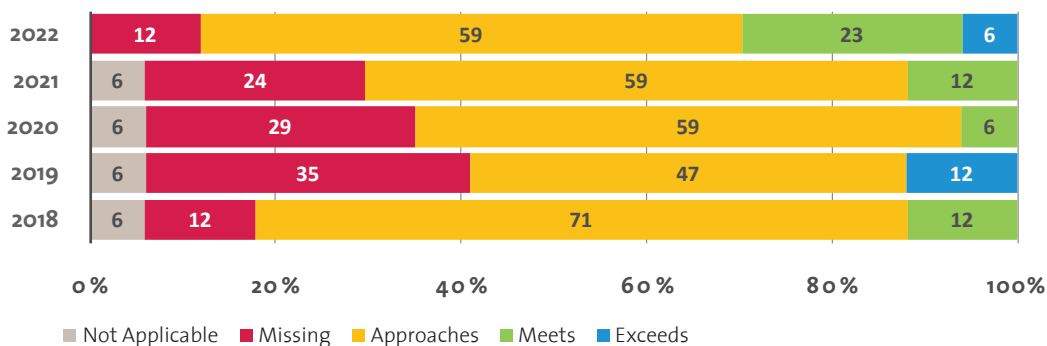

COMPARISON WITH ENTITIES WITH A TECHNICAL FOCUS AND THE OVERALL UN SYSTEM

In 2022, IMO met or exceeded less indicators than the average for Technical entities and the UN System as a whole.

IMO rated all indicators as applicable to the entity's scope of work.

IMO, COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS OF RATINGS BY YEAR

IMO UN-SWAP performance improved significantly in 2022 by more than doubling the number of indicators meeting and exceeding requirements in 2021. IMO also decreased the number of indicators that missed requirements by half, a noteworthy achievement.
