If you have questions, please contact cs@unwomen.org

On the next page, click “Submit Statement” in the right-hand box on the top of the page. Also note the instructions for Written Statements can be found on this page.

Published Statements

Statement submission is open for organizations accredited with:

- ECOSOC Consultative Status - General
- ECOSOC Consultative Status - Roster
- ECOSOC Consultative Status - Special
Then select “Click here to submit a new statement to this event” on the following page:

You should now be on the page to add a statement. Enter your text in the large box provided. Please note the maximum word count permitted based on your ECOSOC status. It is recommended that you first write and save your statement in a word processing program such as Microsoft Word in case there is a disruption of online service during the submission process.

Select the language. Enter the Submitter’s name and Submitter’s email address.

Optional: If you are submitting a joint statement with another organization, you may search for the organization in the search bar provided at the bottom of the page. Once you find the organization you are submitting a statement with, select “Add” next to their name. You can add multiple organizations to your joint statement by repeating this step.
Once you have completed all fields, click “Add” at the very bottom of the page, and your statement will be submitted for review.

For any questions concerning statement submission, please send an email to csw@unwomen.org
