CEDAW, Beijing Platform for Action, 2030 Agenda, SDGs

Initial SP schematic developed for stakeholder consultations
Lessons learned

The Lessons Learned are informed by the Mid-Term Review of UN-Women’s Strategic Plan 2014-2017 and independent evaluations:

• UN-Women’s priorities and interventions are relevant and aligned to key normative agreements for gender equality and the empowerment of all women and girls.

• Despite progress on the Women, Peace and Security normative agenda, good practice must be brought to scale.

• UN-Women’s ability to leverage its composite mandate has been a major asset.

• UN-Women’s convening role has led to catalytic change, but partnerships need to become more results-orientated.

• UN-Women’s strengthened field presence has achieved significant results, but requires stronger programmatic design and focus.

• Growing recognition of the need for gender-responsive approaches in humanitarian action is driving increased demand for UN-Women’s engagement in this area.

Building on this, UN Women’s capacity to leverage innovation and partnerships, including with the UN System, focus its programming and demonstrate increased efficiency, will allow it to deliver results in the context of its 2018-2021 Strategic Plan that contribute to the SDGs in ways that leave no women or girls behind.
Content of the New Strategic Plan

- Provides overview of challenges and progress on gender equality
- Grounds the plan in key normative guidance.
- Positions UN-Women as an accelerator of progress to break and reverse trends in unacceptably slow progress to gender equality.
- Lays out key lessons learned from evaluations and MTR.
- Emphasizes interconnected and indivisible normative, operational and coordination elements
- Leverages UN Women’s collaborative advantages, partnerships and coordination mandate (to better deliver on prevention)
- Emphasis on leaving no one behind and on the humanitarian-development nexus
- Increases programmatic focus, leveraging the FPIs
- Emphasizes areas of comparative advantage: conflict prevention, engagement of youth, partnership with civil society, and the engagement of the private sector
- Spells out a multi-pronged implementation strategy to achieve the SP on time, on scope and on budget
- Commits to investment in data and information and monitoring systems
Leveraging the new Strategic Plan for UN Coherence

• “Common chapeau” shared with UNICEF, UNFPA and UNDP
• Based on idea of “collaborative advantage”
• UN-Women keen to remain engaged in interagency process, strengthen the common chapeau and identify shared outcomes/indicators with other agencies
Collaborative Advantage: Delivering Together for Every Woman Every Child

- Evaluation

Output 4: Improved management of financial and human resources in pursuit of results

- Stewardship of resources;
- Human resources;
- Risk management and accountability;
- ICT;
- Staff premises and security
Implementing the Strategic Plan

• Build on and deepen programming focus, business process streamlining, upgrading of programme management information systems, and staff capacity development in programme formulation and management

• Responding to the Regional Architecture Evaluation
  • Refined country presence typologies, maximizing results and reflecting national context and capacity;
  • Greater attention to financial viability as a determinant of country presence type;
  • Reduced reliance on the Multi-Country Office model;
  • Better alignment of headquarters support with field requirements.

• Leveraging the new UNDAF guidance as a catalyst for collaboration

• Harnessing Innovation and technology to enhance the efficiency of external and internal operations

• Corporate evaluation plan to generate systematically evaluation evidence on the relevance, effectiveness, efficiency, impact and sustainability of the Strategic Plan.
Overall contributions growth since 2012
Next steps

• 2nd informal: June 12th to update on integration of feedback from Executive Board Members into the Strategic Plan

• In the interim, UN Women will:
  • Refine its results architecture by: 1) Finalizing full methodological notes for indicators (including the identification of baselines, milestones and targets)  2) developing an overall Theory of Change for the DRF
  • Engage in the interagency process to: 1) refine the “common chapeau” for the SP and 2) identify shared impact and outcome level indicators
  • Focus on full integration of an LNOB approach into its SP. A Zero Draft of the SP has been shared with the International Disabilities Alliance (IDA) for their support / suggestions on how to meaningfully address the priorities of persons living with disabilities through UN Women’s work

• The Strategic Plan is scheduled to formally reviewed at the Annual Session of the Executive Board (27-28th June) and presented for adoption at the Second Regular Session (September)
