Executive Board

2nd Regular Session 2019

Operational Response at Country Level: Fiji Multi-Country Office
PACIFIC DEVELOPMENT CONTEXT

• 14 ‘Large ocean states’ with population of 2.4 mil
• Key differences in geography, size, history, culture, economies and political systems
• Informal and subsistence economies
• High youth population and youth unemployment
• Prevalence of NCDs some of the highest in the world
• Limited access to SRHR

• Most Pacific States have dedicated Ministries of Women or departments. Most States actively participate in CEDAW, Beijing +25 – and monitor gender progress under SDG Goal 5
• Highest recorded rates of VAW prevalence in the world – IPV at twice the global average
• Lowest numbers of women in parliaments at 8.2%
• Women overrepresented in informal economy, high vulnerability
• Pre-existing inequalities put women at disproportionate risk from disasters and climate change
• Two out of the 6 countries that have not ratified CEDAW are in the Pacific (Tonga and Palau)
• Low numbers of women in leadership roles at all levels, despite legal right to full participation in political life.
PARTNERSHIP AND COORDINATION

KEY OPERATIONAL ISSUES

• Coverage of 14 countries

• UN Reform: currently 2 Resident Coordinator offices – MCO review may result in further change: increased need for coordination

• Direct implementation of large complex programmes: challenges of recruitment across all country offices
KEY LESSONS LEARNED

• Comprehensive, and integrated approaches to address complex issues

• Complex issues require partnerships – UN Women Fiji MCO prides itself on our partnerships with donors, UN agencies, government partners, Pacific regional bodies and civil society

• Technical support on site favored by member states

• Alignment to SDGs through the UN Pacific Strategy
