Directory of
NATIONAL MECHANISMS
for Gender Equality
November 2019
This page is intentionally left blank
The Directory of National Mechanisms for Gender Equality is maintained by UN Women, the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women, with the support of the United Nations Regional Commissions.

In order to ensure that the information in the Directory is as comprehensive and accurate as possible, Governments are kindly invited to provide relevant information corrections and/or additions regarding their national machineries to:

* For purposes of the Directory, the term ‘national mechanisms for gender equality’ is understood to include those bodies and institutions within different branches of the State (legislative, executive and judicial branches) as well as independent, accountability and advisory bodies that, together, are recognized as ‘national mechanisms for gender equality’ by all stakeholders. They may include, but not be limited to:

- The national mechanisms for the advancement of women within Government (e.g. a Ministry, Department, or Office. See paragraph 201 of the Beijing Platform for Action)
- Inter-ministerial bodies (e.g. task forces/working groups/commissions or similar arrangements)
- Advisory/consultative bodies, with multi-stakeholder participation
- Gender equality ombud
- Gender equality observatory
- Parliamentary committee
