Pacific	02000403	Social Citizenship Education component of the Pacific Partnership to End Violence against Women and Girls Phase II	Pacific Community (SPC)	1-Jan-24	31-Dec-27	31-Dec-27	The SCE component of the Pacific Partnership, led by SPC, is a comprehensive programme aimed at addressing violence against women and girls by promoting human rights, gender equality, and social inclusion both in and out of schools. Schools are critical spaces for shaping children's perspectives on gender and human rights through their curriculum, peer interactions, and relationships between staff and students. They can either reinforce harmful gender norms or act as powerful catalysts for transformation. By fostering a cultural shift towards more inclusive and respectful norms, SCE aims to challenge harmful practices and promote positive social change. The programme leverages the potential of schools as platforms for VAWG prevention by delivering activities within classrooms and through school clubs. These efforts extend beyond teacher-student interactions to involve parents, communities, and governing bodies, adopting a comprehensive whole-of-school approach that builds a culture of respect and equality.	4,405,286.36
