

CLIMATE CHANGE ADAPTATION STRATEGIES FOR CAPACITY-BUILDING AND ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN FARMERS

WEDNESDAY, 14 MARCH 2018

16:45 – 18:00

Conference Room 11, United Nations Secretariat

Join us to take part in a discussion on opportunities to strengthen climate change adaptation strategies for capacity building and the economic empowerment of women farmers in Mali and Malawi.

Speakers include:

H.E. Arouna Modibo Touré, Minister of Digital Economy and Communication of Mali

H.E. Traore Oumou Touré, Minister of Promotion of Women, Children and Family of Mali

H.E. Mr. Christian Braun, Ambassador and Permanent Representative of Luxembourg to the UN

H.E. Dr. Jean Kalilani, MP, Minister of Gender, Children, Disability & Social Welfare of Malawi

Mr. Anderson Chikomola, Deputy Director of Agriculture Extension Services of Malawi

Ms. Michèle Sabban, Honorary President of R20 and President of the Green Fund for Women

Dr. Yannick Glemarec, ASG and Deputy Executive Director, Policy and Programme, UN Women

Moderator: Ms. Izeduwa Derex-Briggs, UN Women Regional Director, ESARO

This event is open to the media.

Note: If you wish to attend this event, you must RSVP using this link or write to Antoine Perez at antoine.perez@unwomen.org by 11 March 2018. Due to increasing security restrictions at UN Headquarters, Security will only admit those whose name will be printed on the ticket, and who will be carrying a valid state-issued ID. Registered participants will be contacted by email with instructions on how to pick up tickets prior to the event.