Step It Up for Gender Equality

Coordinating the work of the United Nations on gender equality and the empowerment of women

The founding resolution of UN Women provides the mandate to lead, coordinate and promote accountability of the UN system in its work on gender equality and the empowerment of women (GEEW).

(A/RES/64/289, OPs 49-88)

The 2012 QCPR recognized the role of UN Women for more effective and coherent gender mainstreaming across the United Nations, as well as in leading, coordinating and promoting accountability of the United Nations system in its work on gender equality and the empowerment of women, and its role in assisting Member States upon their request. (A/RES/67/226, OP 80)

The 2016 QCPR calls upon all entities to continue to promote GEEW by enhancing gender mainstreaming through the full implementation of the UN-SWAP, developed under the leadership of UN Women, as well as the UNCT Performance Indicators for GEEW as well as drawing on available gender expertise in the system at all levels, including at UN Women, to assist in mainstreaming gender equality in preparation of the UNDAF (A/RES/71/243, OP 13)

The ECOSOC continues to welcome the important and continued extensive work of UN Women for more effective and coherent gender mainstreaming across the UN and recognizes its role in leading, coordinating and promoting accountability of the UN system in its work on gender equality and the empowerment of women.

(Latest ECOSOC resolution on gender mainstreaming E/RES/2017/9, OP 5)

- UN Women supports UN system partners to deliver gender equality results across their work
- Reflects the Entity's strengthened system-wide role and the UN System-wide Action Plan on Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women
- Leveraging the UN system is mainstreamed across Results Framework

IMPACT: Multi-stakeholder partnerships within the UN system deliver improved results for women and girls, in contribution to the 2030 Agenda and in accordance with international human rights standards

ASSUMPTIONS: The UN system recognizes and supports the UN Women Coordination Mandate, with boundaries agreed at Executive Board, and/or CEB/UNDG levels as needed - Adequate financial resources are in place

- Keeping gender equality central to UN System strategic repositioning for effective support to SDGs
- Roll out new generation of accountability frameworks
- Support implementation of the SG's system-wide gender parity strategy
- Seek to increase resources and capacities to implement the coordination mandate
