UN-Women
Strategic Plan
2022-2025

Executive Board Annual Session
22 June 2021
GLOBAL CONTEXT

- 26 years of the Beijing Platform for Action: persistent structural barriers amid vital progress
- Global economic crisis prompted by COVID-19 pandemic
- Compounded gender inequalities and disproportionate socioeconomic impact of COVID-19
- Complex and protracted conflict and humanitarian crises
- Population dynamics & demographic trends
- Technology & innovation advances
- Potential and primacy of data and big data
7 SYSTEMIC OUTCOMES TO ACHIEVE IMPACT AT SCALE

- Gender-responsive normative frameworks, policies and institutions
- UN System Coordination for Gender Equality
- Production, analysis and use of gender statistics and data
- Financing for gender equality
- Voice, leadership & agency of women & girls
- Women’s equitable access to services, goods & resources
- Positive social norms
- Governance & Participation in Public Life
- Economic Empowerment & Resilience
- Peace & Security, Humanitarian Action & Disaster Risk Reduction

Gender Equality and Women’s Empowerment
Increased financing and accountability for GEWE

Integrated approaches for transformative results (data, climate, social norms...)

Leveraging coordination mandate to affect the UN system wide results

Programme approach to achieve impact at scale (pooled funding, standard approaches)

Broaden and deepen partnerships for gender equality (private sector, IFIs, men & boys)

Diverse and empowered workforce delivering feminist excellence
UN WORKING TOGETHER
STRATEGIES TO INFLUENCE THE UN SYSTEM AND TO ACHIEVE RESULTS AT SCALE

- Embedding new QCPR in strategic plan
- Unsystem coordination central to new strategic plan
- Upfront investment in & alignment with UN cooperation frameworks
- Ensuring gender equality remains at the center of UN repositioning, advocating and supporting a twin track approach
- Integrated policy support to achieve the SDGs, with a specific focus on Goal 5 and LNOB
- Strategic partnerships with UN agencies to accelerate results & impact at scale & mobilize financing for gender equality
THANK YOU