Context and Overview

Leveraging on the audit and advisory results, UN-Women has:

- Embedded lessons learned into the formulation of Strategic Plan 2022-2025
- Continued to undertake improvements in governance, risk management and compliance for a stronger Second Line of Defense
- Recognized to deliver more efficiently with greater standardizations and facilitate scaling for impact through strengthened capacity at field level
Management Response to 4 Overarching Areas for Improvements

Enhanced Second Line of Defense:
- SPRED lead analysis on strengthening Second Line of Defense workplan
- Started with integrated planning and budgeting processes within SPRED

Development of a Statement on Internal Controls:
- Identifying specific gaps and requirements to establish the Statement of Internal Controls

Increase management absorption capacity:
- Determining options to address findings with a prioritized list of critical areas
- Well-managed resource investments and organizational changes to be implemented over time

Strengthen capacity, particularly in the field:
- Fit-for-purpose Presence Governance Framework for better aligned capacity and sustainability of UN-Women’s field foot-print
- Closer to ground support for the implementation of strategic priorities
