

UN-Women Global Evaluation Advisory Committee

Name and title	Organization	Country/Region	Evaluation Expertise	Gender equality and women's rights expertise
Caroline HEIDER, World Bank Vice-President and Director General of Independent Evaluation Group Chair of the Committee	Multilateral Bank	Germany, Europe	Extensive expertise in evaluation (over 20 years). She worked with six multilateral organizations, including international finance institutions. She has extensive evaluation experience in international development and humanitarian assistance and experience in related areas of strategic planning, management audit, and program design.	Experience in Human Rights
Florence Etta-AkinAina Founder, former Chair and current Vice-Chair of African Gender and Development Evaluators Network (AGDEN); Former President of the African Evaluation Association	Voluntary Organizations for Professional Evaluation (CSO)	Nigeria, Africa	Florence Etta-AkinAina is an experienced international expert, researcher and evaluator with over 25 years' experience in gender and evaluation, capacity development, and civil society organizations. As Founder, former Chair and current Vice-Chair of AGDEN, Ms. Etta-AkinAina was instrumental in the creation and institutionalization of AGDEN, as well as in the growth and development of the gender and evaluation African network.	25 years' experience in gender and evaluation
Thania de la Garza NAVARRETE Deputy Director General, Evaluation, National Council for evaluation of Social Policies (CONEVAL), Mexico	Government	Mexico, Latin America	She has worked for the last fifteen years different subjects related to M&E policies. She works at CONEVAL since 2007. She belongs to the team who designed and implemented the main framework of the Mexican M&E system. As Deputy General Director at CONEVAL she also has coordinated the programmes and politics evaluations in the last years. She taught programme evaluation, public administration and evaluation of projects at different universities in México.	She is familiar with gender issues in general, and gender-responsive evaluation in particular
Katherine HAY Senior Program Officer, Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, India	Private foundation	India, South Asia	Katherine leads the monitoring, learning, and evaluation function for the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation in India. Prior to joining the Gates Foundation, she was Senior Evaluation Specialist, at the International Development Research Centre. A champion of equity focused evaluation and	Katherine brings a strong gender and equity focus to her evaluation work. She is a member of the Adolescent Girls working group at Gates and has a number of publications on feminist evaluation and gender equity.

UN-Women Global Evaluation Advisory Committee

Maria BUSTELO Associate Professor, Complutense University Susan Tamondong Vice-President of the International Development Evaluation Association (IDEAS) Colin KIRK, Director, UNICEF Evaluation Office			evaluation field building, her work includes forming evaluation communities of practice and building evaluation curriculum in universities in South Asia.
	Academia	Spain, Europe	Director of the Master on Evaluation of Programmes and Public Policies (UCM) since its commencements in 2002. President of the European Evaluation Society during 2012 and 2013, she has also been Member of the Board of Director Committee of the Spanish National Agency for the Evaluation of Public Policies (2007-2011). In the current European research project she leads (2013-2016) under FP7th, the GENOVATE (“Transforming Organisational Culture for Gender Equality in Research and Innovation”), her team at the UCM acts as project evaluator.	She has been the leader at the UCM of several National and European research projects on the quality of gender equality policies. She has a number of publications on evaluation theory and methodology as well as on gender equality policies, including intersectionality, gender mainstreaming evaluation and policy frame analysis.
	Voluntary Organizations for Professional Evaluation (CSO)	The Philippines, East Asia and Pacific	Ms Tamondong has over 20 years of experience in developing countries in social development, evaluation, resettlement, public affairs, communications and project management. She started her career in the Philippines as a community organizer working with civil society groups to assist underprivileged groups and communities. She worked with UNHCR in Philippines, Thailand, and Somalia assisting refugees needing resettlement and social services. She coordinated with NGOs and various embassies to protect unaccompanied minors and vulnerable groups and liaised with legal officers on political asylum cases.	Experience in human rights.
	UN Agency	UK, Europe	Extensive evaluation experience in bilateral organizations, development banks and UN. Before his current position, he was Director of Evaluation At DFID and DFID Country Representative in Rwanda.	Current work closely related to human rights and equity responsive evaluation.

UN-Women Global Evaluation Advisory Committee

Moez Doraid Director, Coordination Division, UN Women HQ	UN Women, HQ	Egypt, Arab States	Extensive experience in the UN system, having held several senior positions in UNDP. Since 2006, he served as Deputy Executive Director for Organizational and Business Development Services of UNIFEM. Prior to that, Mr. Doraid served as UN Resident Coordinator and UNDP Resident Representative in Kuwait	Experience in gender
Diana Ofwona Mukama West and Central Africa Regional Director, UN Women	UN Women, RO	Kenya, Africa	Diana Ofwona is the Regional Director a.i. of UN Women Office for West and Central Africa (WCARO) since 1 July 2015. Prior to her current appointment, she served as Representative of UN Women in Rwanda since 2013 and has to her credit over 25 years' experience working in the area of socio-economic policy development, peace and security.	Experience in gender
Marco SEGONE, Director, Evaluation Office, UN Women Secretariat of Global Evaluation Committee	UN Women	Italy, Europe	Extensive experience in the UN system. Previously, he worked at UNICEF Evaluation Office, Regional and Country Offices, as well as international NGOs. He is UNEG Vice Chair and EvalPartners Vice-Chair.	Expert in equity-focused and gender-responsive evaluation
Khetsiwe Dlamini Chief of Staff, UN Women Ex-officio member	UN Women	Swaziland, Africa	Khetsiwe Dlamini is the UN Women Chief of Staff, Office of the Executive Director, UN Women. https://www.linkedin.com/in/khetsiwe	Experience in gender