NATIONAL EVALUATION CAPACITIES

Evaluations as an agent of change

Corporate Evaluations

Corporate Evaluation of UN-Women's Strategic Partnerships

14 COMPLETED | 18 | 4 ONGOING

Recommendations & Actions

The evaluation led to

- > the development and roll-out of UN-Women's Resource Mobilization and Partnership Strategy 2018-2021
- > a partnership policy accompanied by procedure and business processes, currently being finalized
- > the adoption of a due diligence policy to manage the risks and maximize the benefits from private sector partnerships

Decentralized Evaluations

Evaluations used to:

- > leverage UN agencies and partner resources
- > expand UN-Women's reach, scale and outreach to women
- > strengthen results-based management system to regularly monitor and measure progress and results
- > test and sharpen sustainable approaches to enhancing the capacity of women's organizations
- > develop joint programmes and better integration of gender equality dimensions in UNDAFs

DRIVERS FOR IMPROVED EVALUATION PERFORMANCE

-  Shift towards more strategic evaluations & greater role of IES in managing evaluations

-  Synergy between corporate and decentralized evaluations

---

-  Collaboration with the Internal Audit Service, Programme Division and Regional Offices

AREAS THAT REQUIRE IMPROVEMENT

-  Coverage of evaluations and uneven roll-out of CPEs

---

-  Timely development and implementation of management responses

---

-  Gaps in results-based programming and management systems (that hinder the ability of evaluations to effectively assess impact)

---

-  Strategic planning and tracking of expenditures related to decentralized evaluations

CONCLUSION

Achieving KPIs

Progress against the 9 KPIs maintained at a high rate.

Majority of evaluations performed well against the quality standards.

Prompting Change

Evaluations generated knowledge on a range of thematic and organizational effectiveness and efficiency areas.

UN Women's management remained committed and increased uptake of lessons and recommendations reported.

Influencing systems for GEWE

Collaboration enhanced with other UN agencies on joint and UNDAF evaluations.

System-wide gender responsive evaluation intensified through UNEG.
