

Independent Evaluation and Audit Services (IEAS)

Independent Evaluation Service (IES)

CORPORATE THEMATIC EVALUATION OF UN WOMEN'S CONTRIBUTION TO GOVERNANCE AND NATIONAL PLANNING

Final Report

CORPORATE EVALUATION OF UN WOMEN'S CONTRIBUTION TO GOVERNANCE AND NATIONAL PLANNING

Inga Sniukaite

Chief, Independent Evaluation Service (IES)

WHAT WAS EVALUATED

The evaluation focused on UN Women’s work on Governance and National Planning (GNP) - Impact Area 5

The evaluation was conducted from Dec. 2017 to Dec. 2018 and focused on the period of 2011- 2017

Work on gender-responsive HIV/AIDS planning is also included in the scope of the evaluation

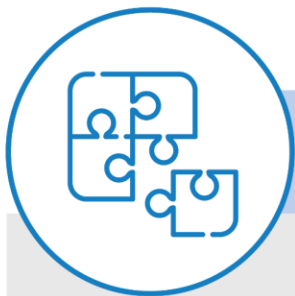

During this period, UN Women’s GNP operations took place across 76 countries (targeted HIV/AIDS programs in 35)

The total expenditure for UN Women’s GNP work amounted to US$125.8 million, approximately 8% of expenditures across all of the impact areas

WHAT THE EVALUATION CONCLUDED

1

Positioning
GNP within
UN Women

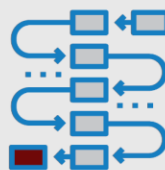

2

Positioning
GNP in the context of UN reform

3

Evolving the GNP theory of change

4

Capturing GNP
results for accountability
& learning

5

Enhancing the financial sustainability of GNP work

WHAT THE EVALUATION RECOMMENDS

1

Develop integrated policy and program package

2

Determine the relationship between GNP and HIV/AIDS work

3

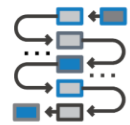

Leverage coordinated UN support on gender-responsive GNP

4

Strengthen support for AAAA implementation at country level

5

Prepare evolved Theory of Change

10

Review the use of core funding

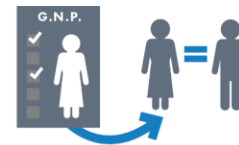

9

Strengthen knowledge management and learning systems

8

Accelerate the institutionalization of the Result Management System

7

Put in place systems to measure the impact of gender-responsive GNP

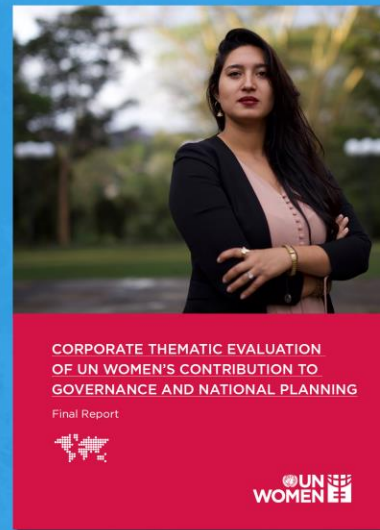

6

Support consistent national civil society roles

THANK YOU

Find all corporate evaluations at:

<http://www.unwomen.org/en/about-us/accountability/evaluation/corporate-evaluations>

Find us on Twitter

@unwomenEval